Bridge Bank Presents Cyber Crime Symposium

FBI, Secret Service, SJPd, County DA's Office Participate

San Jose, CA – October 27, 2009 – Bridge Capital Holdings (NASDAQ: BBNK), whose subsidiary is Bridge Bank, National Association, a full service professional business bank located in the Silicon Valley region of California, announced today that it presented a symposium on Cyber Security. More than 200 people representing over 100 businesses from the Silicon Valley / Bay Area attended the event. The symposium was held at the Fairmont in San Jose, California.

The purpose of the symposium was to raise the level of awareness among business owners and managers of increasing incidents of cyber crime nationwide. Attendees were also briefed on measures they could take to avoid becoming a victim of cyber crime. Each attendee was provided a check list of cyber security best practices outlining what they could do to better protect their business financial assets.

Bridge Bank partnered with the San Jose Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce and the District Attorney's Office of the County of Santa Clara. Presentations covered an overall scope of the cyber crime problem, and included trends at both the global, national, and local level.

Presenters at the symposium included representatives from R.E.A.C.T. (Rapid Enforcement Allied Computer Team), the High Tech Crimes Unit of the San Jose Police Department, and Agents from the FBI and United States Secret Service.

Media Sponsors included PSA's by NBC11 Bay Area and print coverage by the Silicon Valley / San Jose Business Journal.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this press release constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are subject to the safe harbors created by that Act. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They often include the words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate," or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could," or "may." Forward-looking statements describe future plans, strategies and expectations. Forward-looking statements are based on currently available information, expectations, assumptions, projections, and management's judgment about the Company, the banking industry and general economic conditions. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, nor should they be relied upon as representing management's views as of any subsequent date. Future events are difficult to predict, and the expectations described above are necessarily subject to risk and uncertainty that may cause actual results to differ materially and adversely.

Forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties and actual results may differ materially from those presented, either expressed or implied, in this press release. Factors that might cause such differences include, but are not limited to: the Company's ability to successfully execute its business plans and achieve its objectives; changes in general economic, real estate and financial market conditions, either nationally or locally in areas in which the Company conducts its operations; changes in interest rates; new litigation or changes in existing litigation; future credit loss experience; increased competitive challenges and expanding product and pricing pressures among financial institutions; legislation or regulatory changes which adversely affect the Company's operations or business; loss of key personnel; changes in accounting policies or procedures as may be required by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or other regulatory agencies; and the ability to satisfy requirements related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and other regulation on internal control.

The reader should refer to the more complete discussion of such risks in Bridge Capital Holdings' annual reports on Forms 10-K and quarterly reports on Forms 10-Q on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
