Bridge Bank to Sponsor 3rd Annual AlwaysOn Venture Summit East Conference at Harvard Business School

San Jose, CA – June 17, 2010 – Bridge Capital Holdings (NASDAQ: BBNK), whose subsidiary is Bridge Bank, National Association, a full-service professional business bank headquartered in Silicon Valley, announced today its sponsorship and participation in the 3rd Annual AlwaysOn Venture Summit East Conference. This two day conference will be held June 21-23 at the Harvard Business School in Boston, MA.

“Bridge Bank continues to make a name for itself as a source of innovative banking solutions as well as being a key partner to their companies,” said Tony Perkins, Founder and Editor of AlwaysOn. “We are happy to provide our attendees and Bridge Bank with this premier opportunity to meet and work together.”

Like its sister event in Silicon Valley, Venture Summit East is a two-day gathering that highlights the significant economic, political and technology trends impacting the global growth investor. The attendees for Venture Summit East will include the most influential institutional investors, venture capitalists, corporate buyers, investment bankers and research analysts in the Eastern U.S. in keynote presentations and panel debates. Venture Summit East will also feature the AlwaysOn East 100 Top Private Companies list, and play host to CEO Showcases from qualified companies seeking later-stage capital or potential acquirers.

Five hundred institutional investors, venture capitalists, investment bankers, research analysts, and corporate buyers will attend Venture Summit East. The most influential members of the financial and technology media and blogging community will also be on hand to moderate debates and cover the conference and it will be webcast to over 40,000 people world-wide. Executives attend Venture Summit East to identify and debate emerging investment opportunities in venture and private equity funds and private growth companies, and to build high-level relationships with technology and greentech CEOs and corporate buyers.

“Companies are beginning to grow again in many fields and we look forward to addressing their demands for innovative and creative credit, banking, and partnership solutions,” said Paul Gibson, Senior Vice President of Bridge Bank’s Technology Banking East Coast Office. “We look forward to meeting them and their investors and to once again partner with AlwaysOn for Venture Summit East at a landmark venue.”

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this press release constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are subject to the safe harbors created by that Act. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They often include the words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate," or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could," or "may." Forward-looking statements describe future plans, strategies and expectations. Forward-looking statements are based on currently available information, expectations, assumptions, projections, and management's judgment about the Company, the banking industry and general economic conditions. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, nor should they be relied upon as representing management's views as of any subsequent date. Future events are difficult to predict, and the expectations described above are necessarily subject to risk and uncertainty that may cause actual results to differ materially and adversely.

Forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties and actual results may differ materially from those presented, either expressed or implied, in this press release. Factors that might cause such differences include, but are not limited to: the Company's ability to successfully execute its business plans and achieve its objectives; changes in general economic, real estate and financial market conditions, either nationally or locally in areas in which the Company conducts its operations; changes in interest rates; new litigation or changes in existing litigation; future credit loss experience; increased competitive challenges and expanding product and pricing pressures among financial institutions; legislation or regulatory changes which adversely affect the Company's operations or business; loss of key personnel; changes in accounting policies or procedures as may be required by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or other regulatory agencies; and the ability to satisfy requirements related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and other regulation on internal control.

The reader should refer to the more complete discussion of such risks in Bridge Capital Holdings' annual reports on Forms 10-K and quarterly reports on Forms 10-Q on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
